

Government College for women Parade ground Jammu

B.A 3rd semester

Course number UPSPC-301.

Subject -political science

Title- Comparative Government and Politics.

Note paper is divided into three sections

Section A—contains 5 questions each carrying 3 marks. The candidates are required to attempt all questions.

Section -B -contain 5 questions each carrying 7 marks. The candidate are required to attempt all questions.

Section C contain five questions each carrying 15 marks. The candidates are required to attempt any 2 questions.

Section A

- Q1-Define comparative politics (any three)
- Q2-Write briefly the meaning of political socialization
- Q3-write any three types of political participation
- Q4-Write a short note on multi-party system
- Q5-What is direct election?

Section B

- Q1-Explain dependency approach given by AG Frank
- Q2-Explain the meaning and type of political culture
- Q3-Explain the concept of pluralist theory of democracy
- Q4-Explain the features of proportional representation
- Q5-Explain the features of Canadian federal system

Section C

- Q1-Explain in detail the meaning and scope of comparative politics.
- Q2-Explain in detail system approach given by David Easton.
- Q3-Explain the meaning of political socialization and write in detail the agents of political socialization.
- Q4-Explain in detail the merits and demerits of Bi party and multi-party system.
- Q5-Wrie a detailed note on meaning and significance of Human Rights.