

Examination BA Semester IV
Political Science (CBCS)

Time allowed: 3 hrs

M. Marks: 80

Note: The question paper consists of three sections.

Section A is comprised of five compulsory short answer type question of 3 marks each with an upper limit of 70-80 words.

Section B is comprised of five compulsory medium answer type question of 7 marks each with an upper limit of 250-300 words.

Section C is comprised of five compulsory long answer type question. The candidates are required to attempt any two questions with an upper limit of 500-600 words. Each question carries 15 marks.

SECTION – A

1. Define the term International Politics.
2. Write down two definitions of national power.
3. What do you understand by Foreign Policies?
4. What is Collective Security?
5. Define cold war.

SECTION – B

6. Explain the Realist approach as given by Hans J. Morgenthau.
7. Discuss the geographical elements of national power.
8. What is difference between old and new diplomacy?
9. Differentiate between imperialism and non-imperialism.
10. Discuss the need for Disarmament.

SECTION – C

11. Discuss the nature and scope of International Politics.
12. Explain the type of national interest.
13. Critically explain the decision making approach as given by Richard C. Snyder,
14. Define propaganda. Elucidate the various techniques of propaganda.
15. Describe the major efforts in achieving disarmament.